NO. 19 • THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2006 • SERVING PRESS and STAFF SINCE 1873
NEWSPAPER TECHNOLOGY | Kevin Slimp (standing), director of the Institute of Newspaper Technology in Knoxville, Tenn., and technology director of the Tennessee Press Association, leads a discussion of InDesign at the APA headquarters on May 11. Perennially one of APA's most popular instructors, Slimp's full-day seminar on InDesign and PhotoShop packed the Association's conference center.
Time is running out for "Teacher of the Year" nominations
Nominations for the 2006 Newspaper in Education (NIE) "Teacher of the Year" officially end on May 20. That date, falling on Saturday this year, buys those who want to nominate a local educator for the award two days. Nominations must be sent to the APA headquarters or Karen Brown, Arkansas director of NIE, by Monday, May 22. That is just seven business days from today.
A nominations form is attached and is available for download via APA's electronic bulletin board or the following location: www.arkansaspress.org/bbs/NIE/Teacher of the Year/.
Please mail or fax your submission to Karen Brown, APA Teacher of the Year, 111 S. Victory, Little Rock, AR 72201. FAX 501-374-7509. Email submissions will be accepted in PDF (Adobe Acrobat) format at karenb@commnph.com. Newspapers may nominate up to four teachers.
The winning teacher will receive a $100 prize, an award plaque, two tickets to the APA Awards Ceremony and complimentary lodging at the Arlington Resort Hotel & Spa, site of the 2006 Arkansas Press Association Super Convention.
Nominees are eligible if they are currently using any Arkansas newspaper publication for educational purposes in the classroom. (Homeschool parents are eligible.)
Hotel deadline nears; no extensions coming
The deadline is the deadline this time around for rooms at the Arlington Resort Hotel and Spa in Hot Springs for the annual SuperConvention to be held June 21-24.
The deadline for making your room reservations at the Arlington is Thursday, May 25, and the hotel has indicated they will NOT be able to extend that deadline this time around because they are so heavily booked in June.
Room rates at the Arlington Hotel for the SuperConvention are $86 for a single and $96 for a double.
Make your reservations now by calling the Arlington at 501-623-7771.
You might as well make the reservation today because the way time flies tomorrow May 25 will be yesterday.
Don't miss out on staying where the action will take place for the SuperConvention. Make your reservation today.
